1. I sing the mighty power of God, that made the mountains rise,
2. I sing the goodness of the Lord, who filled the earth with food,
3. There's not a plant or flow'r below, but makes Thy glories known,

That spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies.
Who formed the creatures by the Word, and then pronounced them good.
And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from Thy throne;

I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed, wher'e're I turn my eye,
While all that borrows life from Thee is ever in Thy care;

The moon shines full at God's command, and all the stars obey.
If I survey the ground I tread, or gaze up on the sky.
And ev'ry-where that we can be, Thou, God art present there.
