1. O sin - ner lift the eye of faith, To true re - pent - ance turn - ing;
2. Look on His head, that bleed - ing head, With crown of thorns sur - round - ed;
3. It is a - lone those limbs are racked, Yes friends, too, have for - sake - en Him;
4. None ev - er knew such pain be - fore, Such in - fin - ite af - flic - tion,

Be - think thee of the curse of sin, Its aw - ful guilt dis - cern - ing;
Look on His hands and on His feet Which pierc - ing nails have wound - ed;
And, more than all, for thank - less man That ten - der heart is ach - ing;
None ev - er felt a grief like His Suf - fring a - lone for - sak - en;

Up - on the Lord Christ Je - sus look, And thou shalt read, as in a book,
See ev - 'ry limb with scour - ges rent; On Christ, the Just, the In - no - cent,
Oh, fear - ful was the pain and scorn, By Je - sus Son of God - borne,
For us He bare those bit - ter throes, For us those ag - o - niz - ing woes,

What well is worth - y thy learn - ing.
What mal - ice hath a - bound - ed.
The peace for sin - ners mak - ing.
In once suf - fered af - flic - tion.

5. O sinner, mark, and ponder well
Sin's awful condemnation;
Think what a sacrifice it cost
To purchase Thy salvation;
Had Jesus never bled and died,
Then what could thee and all betide
But everlasting damnation?

6. Lord, grant us strength to flee from sin,
And Satan's wiles ensnaring,
Saved from those everlasting flames
For unrepentant ones prepared.
Jesus, we thank Thee, and desire
To rest forever at Thy feet,
Thy heavenly glory sharing.
